Assessment Methods 1

Assessment method	Strengths	Weaknesses	Use for identification of prior learning
Pictures
Inventory of competences "Hand"
Tests "www.osaan.fi" (this is an online test)
Competence pie (This is a pie diagram with various competencies at different levels in each slice)
Portfolio

Assessment Methods 2

Assessment method	Strengths	Weaknesses	Use for identification of prior learning
Metaphors "Indian names" (instead of traditional descriptive terms using more open terms)
Peer assessment on structured, criteria-based form
Collective learning diary "Blog" (open, structured, intuitive or criteria-based)
"Disney"-technique (This is where participants are asked to engage in a range of tasks which can be open and or structured. They are required to do all tasks)

Visual-verbal peer feedback "Environment art pictures" (open and or structured)
Guidance and assessment discussion "Guidance discussion"
Peer comments "6-3-5" Six people in a group with 3 papers. All required to read the papers and give written response only. All responses read by each member			